ICOLD: in Vietnam, for Sustainable Development

For the first time in the history of ICOLD, the 19th Annual Meeting of the International Commission on Large Dams (ICOLD), was held in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, one of the most rapid economic growth of ICOLD member countries at the National Convention Centre, in Hanoi, from May 27th to May 30th.

Over 800 delegates, including 400 representatives of governmental organizations, academia, industry and the private sector, gathered in Ho Chi Minh City to discuss the role of dams in sustainable development, as well as the role of dams in the context of climate change and sustainable development. The event was organized by the Vietnam Association of Dams (VAD) and the Vietnam Association of Dams (VAD) and the Vietnam Association of Dams (VAD).

The event was a success, with over 800 delegates attending the event. The event was held in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, one of the most rapid economic growth of ICOLD member countries at the National Convention Centre, in Hanoi, from May 27th to May 30th.
