ICOLD ahead in the progress of dams and reservoirs engineering to address the world's challenges

Thanks to our 100th Anniversary, ICOLD shared its rich history, technical skills and core values. National and international dam and reservoir engineering communities have gathered in Beijing for the 10th ICOLD World Congress and International Dam and Reservoir Engineering Conference. It is the first time in the world that the dam and reservoir engineering community has gathered in China to discuss the world's challenges and solutions.
