

Newsletter 14

The Dams Newsletter
No. 14 - 2014

Mastering Water and Renewable Energy in a mutating world ? Ask ICOLD !

by Michel de Vries

If you wish published in the newsletter you may be best advised to do this with the editor. Please check the content and format of the article before submission. The editor reserves the right to edit and shorten articles for space and readability. Please contact the editor for more information.

CONTENTS:

Editorial

News about Dams

Leadership
A dam is not a dam P.3

Dams: sustainability
The building of a sustainable dam P.8

ICOLD Magazine Club news
Magazine of sustainable damming, the period 2011 - 2013 P.7

ICOLD news in South
with good reasons P.4

ICOLD News

ICOLD President's message P.9

ICOLD Activities P.12

ICOLD is a non-profit organization that provides technical assistance to dam owners and operators in order to improve the safety and reliability of dams. ICOLD is a member of the International Commission on Large Dams (ICLD) and the International Association of Great Lakes Reservoirs (IAGLR).

In the building of the dam, the safety of the dam is the first priority. ICOLD is a non-profit organization that provides technical assistance to dam owners and operators in order to improve the safety and reliability of dams. ICOLD is a member of the International Commission on Large Dams (ICLD) and the International Association of Great Lakes Reservoirs (IAGLR).

